THE EMPRESS DOWAGER
NEVER FORGETS.

The N.-C. Daily News makes the following comments in its notes on native affairs:—This is the constant boast of the Empress Dowager Tze-hsi-tsun-yu, etc., etc., and this she always declares to those around her whenever the events of 1900 and 1901 are referred to in her presence. This means, of course, that she will not forget her sufferings and the sufferings of her people in Peking and Chihli at that time and is still possessed with the one idea of obtaining revenge on the barbarians of the West. To obtain these ends she knows from experience that her present Manchu Banner troops are perfectly useless, and that she must beat the barbarians with their own weapons and forms of fighting. She knows that she has the material for the formation of a numerous army from amongst Manchus alone—leaving out any question of extraneous aid from the Chinese armies of her Viceroys and Governors—for, according to the latest secret census or roll-call instituted at her instructions she has nearly 700,000 Manchurians, and between the ages of eighteen and forty-six at her beck and call. Hence we are now informed from a reliable quarter that she is having her Manchus secretly enrolled and has 30,000 men divided into a number of regiments and half regiments—to avoid the notice of outsiders—who are assiduously drilled and have been armed with the most modern weapons. These men are scattered over various parts of the country and are to form the nucleus of a great army of over half a million men, entirely officered by Manchus, thereby forming a distinct and independent body of men prepared not only to defend the dynasty from Western barbarians but even from Chinese malcontents. This nucleus of a Manchu Grand Army will be drilled and taught the use of the magazine rifle six months, and then after completing their drills the old men return to their Banner reservations, their places being filled by a similar number of fresh men, and so the curriculum goes on until the whole Manchu nation in Peking and in the capitals and cities of the eighteen provinces shall have all learned their military drill after the manner of Western countries. Already six months have passed and new men are being sent to take the places of their predecessors. This will, it is conjectured, enable the Empress Dowager and her friends to begin operations by the spring of 1904 at the latest. In the meantime, "We slumber" until the next new awakening.

BABY'S COUGH MUST NEVER LINGER.
NOTHING is more distressing than to see a helpless little infant suffering with a cough, and to be fearful of using a remedy which may contain some harmful ingredient. The makers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy positively guarantee that this preparation does not contain opium in any form, or any other harmful substance. Mothers may confidently give this remedy to their little ones. It gives prompt relief and is perfectly safe. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by All Dealers; WATKINS Ltd., General Agents.

A woman, who is also a politician, has recently been welcomed home with effusion. In one of the speeches the case was put in a nutshell. "We rejoice," said the chairman, "to see the old warhorse back in the saddle, ready once more to help us guide the ship of state."

MR. W. MITCHELL, Chemist, Bury, England, writes: "Mrs. Horley, an elderly lady, of 55, Eldon Street, was taken ill about Christmas time with dyspepsia, followed by diarrhoea and general breakdown; in fact, she could not walk more than a few yards and feared the worst was coming. On the recommendation of friends, she commenced taking Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil and derived so much benefit from the first bottle that she continued, and to-day visited my store and purchased the sixth bottle, having entirely recovered her customary good health. Wholesale from A. S. Watson & Co., Ltd., Hongkong."

The boy walked boldly up to his employer's desk. "Please, sir," he said, twirling his cap, "my grandmother ain't dead, and I want the afternoon to go to the cricket match." The employer was so amazed that he gave the boy leave, and a shilling to buy grub and fruit with. This is another traditional jest shattered.

The Colonial Treasurer seconded and the motion was agreed to.

THE DUAL ROLE.
The Colonial Secretary laid on the table Report of the Finance Committee (No. 14) and moved its adoption. He said:—In bringing up this report, sir, I beg to take the opportunity, as Chairman of the Finance Committee, of thanking the hon. members for the expeditious manner in which, at considerable trouble to themselves and loss of time, they disposed of a great deal of important business at last meeting. At that meeting, sir, some questions were raised by hon. unofficial members. The member for the Chamber of Commerce questioned the propriety of one of the members of the Medical Department devoting part of his time to, and receiving remuneration for so doing from, the Chinese College of Medicine; and it was moved by Mr. Sharp and seconded by the member for the Justices that the fees of the Government Civil Hospital for first and second-class patients, both inside and outside the Government service, should be raised to $10 and $5 for outside patients and $7.50 and $4 for Government servants respectively.

Mr. C. S. SHARP—Might I point out, sir, that the recommendation as regards Government servants was for those drawing over $200 a month?

The Colonial Secretary—Yes, that is noted.

BLAKE PIER SHELTER.
The Colonial Secretary proceeding, said the erection of a temporary shelter at Blake Pier was also suggested, and the member for the Justices suggested that the supplies of subsidiary costs should be largely increased. The Treasurer promised to investigate this matter. Finally, a decision was expressed by the member for the Chamber of Commerce and the member for the Justices to have the correspondence that has passed between the Secretary of State and the Hon. Mr. Playfair sent down for information to the members of this honourable Council. I promised, sir, to look into the matters I have mentioned, and I have already written to your Excellency's permission, to make arrangements for hon. members to see the correspondence referred to.

The Colonial Treasurer seconded the motion.

His Excellency—With reference to this matter of a shelter for Blake Pier, I may tell hon. members of this Council that I am as anxious as any man in the Council to see this shelter put up at Blake Pier, and I fully recognise the importance of it; but unfortunately, without increasing taxation further than we have suggested, I do not see any way of leaving that on the estimates for this year. At the same time, if we found that the result of the year's proceeding later on and that our next year's revenue appeared to justify it, I have it in my mind that in those circumstances I should ask the permission of the Secretary of State to put a vote for that amount at the first possible moment before the House with a view to carrying out that work. I fully recognise its importance, but I think members of Council will agree with me that there are other things in the public works extraordinary that are more important than that.

The motion was adopted.

CHINESE EMIGRATION CONSOLIDATION ORDINANCE.
On the proposition of the Harbour Master, several amendments were made during the consideration in Committee of the Bill to amend the Chinese Emigration Consolidation Ordinance, 1889.

The Bill was afterwards read a third time.

THE DOGS ORDINANCE.
The Bill to amend the Dogs Ordinance, 1893, was also considered in Committee, and there were no amendments it was read a third time.

DEED FEES.
The Council went into Committee on the Land Registration (Fees) Amendment Ordinance, 1902.

Mr. Sharp drew attention to Clause No. 1. For registering (in accordance with the requirements of Ordinance No. 3 of 1894) every Deed, Assignment, Mortgage, or other instrument in writing (except Deeds, hereinafter provided) where such Deed, Assignment, Mortgage, or other instrument relates only to one lot or one section or portion of a lot as registered or intended to be registered in the Land Office, $15. He reminded the Colonial Secretary that he had, at the last meeting, suggested an amendment.

Mr. May: Yes, but the Solicitor who draws the legal documents knows that it could be very easily supposed upon, and it would be a temptation to fraud. I am not prepared to accept the amendment.

Mr. Sharp: Still, it seems somewhat of an anomaly that a deed for $15,000 should bear the same fee as one for only $1,000. It strikes me that this will prove a distinct hardship on cases where blocks are cut up into very small lots. It will also be the means of causing trouble in other ways.

Mr. Thomson: Oh! It is the same trouble, no matter how big or how small the lots are.

Mr. Sharp: The sum is excessive in the case of a very small lot.

Mr. May: I have gone into that, and to my mind the sum does not seem excessive. The turn over you get and the profit on this land is so great that the fee is hardly worth considering; still the extra revenue you get under this Bill will accrue, principally, from clauses 1 and 2. If these are nullified considerable loss will ensue.

His Excellency: Do you wish to press this, Mr. Sharp?

Mr. Sharp: (after consulting with Mr. Playfair) replied: I can only say that it seems to us an excessive charge. This double the old fee, and in some cases six times higher than the old charge.

Mr. Thomson: Perhaps the Honourable gentleman will tell us how, if we reduce this fee, it will be possible to get the revenue required from other sources.

His Excellency: You wish to put it on somewhere else.

INSURANCES.

WHAT YOU WANT TO KNOW

about a life assurance company is just what you would want to know about a bank or any other institution in which you thought of investing. What is the company's earning ability as shown by its past history? What is the outlook for future dividends as indicated by its accumulated surplus? These two questions answered, and the rest is of secondary importance. Any agent of the Equitable will answer these questions or any other questions you may have.
